To You in Jericho

Hi, breeze
Are you traveling around the world?
If so, tell me,
Can you bring me
The scent of his hair
And the sweetness of his whispering?

Hi, stream
Are you traveling around the world?
If so, tell me,
Can you show me
The reflection of his smile
To irrigate my impoverish heart?

Hi, magpie
Are you traveling around the world?
If so, tell me,
Can you sing him
The song he favors
To brighten up his cheerful laughter?

Now I'm not alone.
For breeze, stream and magpie
Will nose about your tidings for me.

If one day, the world,
This Vanity Fair
Has faded your appearance and gladness,
I will notify
Breeze, stream and magpie
To remind you
Not to worry,
For I am still here
Composing a melody of a fond dream
For you.
