

Peter Pan

You broke through the window,
Asking, "where's my shadow?"
With magic spell,
Darling children are carried out of real.

Neverland is a world with fantasy—

Foolish Tootle shot Wendy proudly
With anger you cried loudly.
"Let's be our mother,"
You and Lost boys plea together.

Blue lagoon shy mermaids surround,
Two pirates were fooled around,
Exactly whose order to set Tiger Lily free?
One day people will see.
Tick-tock-tick-tock,
Let's have a big fight with Captain Hook.
"Hook or me this time?"
Of course the victory will be mine."

Every spring-cleaning time you look for a mother,
But promise won't last forever.
People can't make their growths slow up,
While you are a boy who will never grow up.
