

Just a Knight

by Irene 卓怡岑

Every time as I look into your eyes,
I sense that you wrap fragile in pride.
I can't recognize what you try to hide,
But my shadow is not in your sight.

As the shooting star fell from the sky,
Suddenly I realized.
Nothing stayed but nothing left.
You are the spark and chances go by.

[Chorus]

Just wanna be by your side.
Just be yourself, never mind.
I'm just a knight.
And I promise I'll be fine.

Have you ever thought about life
With somebody you adore beside?
I was so close guarding behind.
Against the high wall
There's no way to walk into your mind.

[Chorus]

Although I'm faded and weary,
All of my efforts may end in disappointing.

Still I won't leave,
Until you get the true happiness.

Although
you never care about me,
I can't forsake you while you're in tears.
To be a knight,
to be a guide to light,
Please let me be your wings,
until you can fly.

[Chorus]

I'm just a knight.
Just a knight
I'm fine...
